Staff Time

by Deacon Dick Lombard

Last week we celebrated a Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. The divided and fractious state of the Christian Church is the elephant in the living room, much more often ignored than recognized. We are splintered into hundreds of factions, many of which are openly opposed to many, if not most, of the others. We must put our own house in order by acknowledging and celebrating our common faith in Jesus, our common confession that Jesus Christ is Lord. The best place to begin this healing is by working swiftly for peace in Jerusalem, a peace which requires loving accommodation with our Jewish and Muslim brothers and sisters. My friend Liz Burke, of Holy Apostles Church, called my attention to a moving prayer for peace in the Holy Land composed by the Rev. Doctor Mounib Younan, Bishop of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Jordan and the Holy Land. I was immediately moved to share a slightly modified version of the prayer with you.

Let us pray for the whole of the people of God in Christ Jesus, and for all people according to their needs.

Eternal God, you know the troubles and pains of the people of Israel-Palestine:

We pray for the victims of injustice and violence but also for those who have caused suffering. We pray for those who cannot enter their places of work.

We pray for young people who are losing their hope for the future and for mothers who are tired of blood shed and killing. We pray for the bereaved families who have lost their beloved ones.

We pray for the recovery of the injured. We pray for those who have to live with permanent disability. We pray for politicians; grant them wisdom and courage to search for reconciliation and peace.

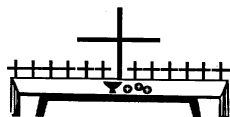

We are all created in your image. Grant us courage to recognize every person's human, religious, civil and political rights. Help us to build a culture of peace, justice and reconciliation. Free us from all hatred and bitterness.

Our Lord, Jesus Christ said to his disciples, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." Give peace to your church, peace among nations, peace in our homes and peace in our hearts. Merciful God, accept our prayers and yearnings.

You are our only strength, refuge and hope. In the name of Jesus, our Liberator and Redeemer. Amen.

Deacon Dick

A Belated Tribute

Many men and women have been honored with titles, monuments, celebrations, and speeches. The people we honor with national holidays speak to the character of our country and the values we hold. Our founding president, George Washington, and the great “Emancipator,” Abraham Lincoln, share a holiday. Those who served their country in the armed forces share another. And in January, we honor Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. whose life was characterized by the struggle for equality for all citizens of this nation. That we honor those who preserved our freedom—our veterans—and one who worked to ensure that everyone could enjoy the benefits of a free society shows the strength of our commitment to the principals of life and liberty that our founders sought to ensure for all citizens of our land.
