And the things you have prepared,
To whom will they belong?" (Luke 12:20)*

Staff Time

from Deacon Dick Lombard

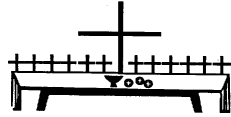

What goes around comes around. After two years at RIT and eight years at Our Lady of Mercy, I am blessed to come around again to my original parish family of Holy Name of Jesus. For those who don't know, Holy Name of Jesus was my first assignment after ordination. I was here for 13 wonderful years and officiated at hundreds of weddings and funerals and almost a thousand baptisms. Of course, it was and continues to be extremely difficult to experience the closing of Our Lady of Mercy parish. This difficulty is offset by the great joy I feel to "be back where I belong," as Fr. Gagnier said at Mass on my first weekend back.

I would like to express my deep felt thanks to Bishop Clark and the Deacon Personnel Board for assigning me here. I am deeply grateful to Fr. Gagnier who advocated for me to the Personnel Board and to the HNJ Staff-especially Deacon Joe Placious-who have been very welcoming and understanding. I am deeply grateful to you, the wonderful people of this parish, for welcoming me back with such enthusiasm.

Thank you from the bottom of my heart,

Deacon Dick

A Little Summer Humor

Laughter is one of God’s gifts to us!

☺One who boasts of being a self-made person relieves the Lord of a lot of responsibility.

☺Better to understand a little than to misunderstand a lot.

☺Casey asked her Sunday School teacher a question: “If the people of Israel are Israelites, and the people of Canaan are Canaanites, are the people of Paris called Parasites?”.

☺The good Lord didn’t create anything without a purpose, but mosquitoes come close.
